4	I think it is a good idea that buildings and public areas have lights for decoration. First of all, these lights are a good way to increase the number of tourists. If many people come to see the decorations, they may buy souvenirs from shops and eat at the restaurants in the area. Second, bright lights will help prevent crimes at nighttime. In a bright area, it is easy to see people's faces and other things clearly. For these reasons, I think it is good for buildings and public areas to have lights for decoration.
